
Career counselling for students with special needs

We are aware that students with special needs have a harder time finding a part-time job, internship or job than their able-bodied classmates. That is why we offer them specialised career counselling.

Helena Horálková